

Concerts on Broadway

Presented by University of Phoenix Idaho Campus

June 19 Jazz Night

Kick off the summer with one of the most listened to Jazz musicians this year. Vibraphonist Steve Hobbs plays homage to his Southern jazz heritage, taking familiar tunes and handing them back refreshed. Come and enjoy the music!

July 17 Kings of Swing

Let the Treasure Valley's favorite big band orchestra — 17 members strong along, with talented vocalists — take you back to a terrific time when swing was king. Enjoy the hits of Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Glenn Miller, and more! Don't forget your dancin' shoes!

August 21

Meridian Symphony

A fitting finale to the summer as the Meridian Symphony presents Broadway, America's Music. Under the direction of Conductor and Artistic Director Tom Phelps, classical music has never been more fun!

Free admission!
Bring a chair or blanket,
picnic on the grass,
and enjoy the show!

Summer Concert Series 2010

All performances begin at 7:00 PM Meridian City Hall Outdoor Plaza
33 E. Broadway Avenue, Downtown Meridian

For more information contact the Meridian Arts Commission at mac@meridiancity.org

Berklee college of music

